Grant-Dixon Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Dixon and Richard H. Grant was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Caroline Dixon in Irvington last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Oswald W. Taylor, of Grace Memorial Episcopal church, officiating. A quiet simplicity marked the ceremony, only relatives and a very few intimate friends being bidden for the happy occasion. The bride wore her dark blue going-away suit with a dark hawk pegasus hat and orange of orchards and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Joseph Lemney, as matron of honor. John Grant, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Both of the young people are popular socially and have a large circle of friends in the city. Mr. Grant is a Stanford man, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grant of this city, and a prominent member of the Metropolitan Athletic Club. He is connected with the Warren Spring company with headquarters at Toledo, O., at which town they will reside after their wedding trip.
